MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY - The Press Centre is only open to members of the working press

A Press Pass will be issued to journalists (including freelance journalists) for recognized:

- journals, magazines and news publications
- news agencies
- broadcast media
- on-line news services or e-journals

Representatives engaged in the following are NOT entitled to a Press Pass but may register as a delegate:

- public relations
- sales and marketing
- advertising
- commercial exhibitions

The organisers of EULAR 2010 reserve the right to refuse a Press Pass. Identification will be required when you arrive at the Congress. Freelance journalists must also provide a letter of assignment.

Press Pass - access and facilities

Those with a Press Pass are entitled to attend: the scientific sessions listed in the programme, the press conferences, the Congress Exhibition.

You will be able to work in the Press Room equipped with telephones, fax, electrical outlets for lap-top computers and on-line access. EULAR press releases, abstracts and other relevant information will be available. In addition to the speakers at the Press Conferences, specialists will be on-hand to answer your questions on aspects of rheumatology.

Corporate materials and product information will not be distributed in the Press Centre.

Embargoes - Journalists are required to observe embargoes as indicated by the Press Release or by the date and time of the beginning of each session. Thank you.

Patients - The organisers of the Annual European Congress of Rheumatology request that journalists respect patient confidentiality and seek permission, as appropriate, if publicising a case study, in which there is any chance that an individual or group of individuals could be identified.

Filming and recording of the scientific sessions is not permitted. Filming and interviews can be arranged through the Press Office.

Press Centre Guests - Information officers for academic institutions, scientific societies or registered medical research charities may register as guests. Spouses, partners or other guests of journalists cannot be registered as Press Centre Guests.
